Adoption Foster Care Birth Parent Services

May 22, 2018

Choose Life Fund:

Caring for Kids has one mail office and two satellite offices in Ohio, and provides services throughout the entire state of Ohio for birth parents seeking to learn about and/or make a voluntary adoption plan. Caring for Kids provides education and support services to birth and adoptive families. Caring for Kids provides education to schools, pregnancy centers, incarcerated women, and the community at large. Caring for Kids seeks community supports for birth parents to obtain services Caring for Kids does not provide themselves. Caring for Kids does provide monthly support group meetings in various locations throughout the state for birth parents as well as three retreats per year for birth mothers.

Caring for Kids greatly appreciates the Choose Life Funds that they have been awarded thus far. The birth mothers we serve directly benefit from all the financial support that the Choose Life Funds provide. In addition to exploring placement options, there are so many birth parents in need of basic support such as food, clothing, transportation, and shelter. These funds allow us to help women with these most basic needs.

Thank you for considering Caring for Kids as a recipient for these generous funds. Feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Jill Davies, LSW
Director of Domestic Adoptions
